

Would you like a Well-Paying Job and a Great Career?

The Uniquely Abled Academy provides hands-on training for adults (over 18) with high functioning autism for the high demand job of Computer Numerical Control (CNC) Machinist.

- Receive Work Readiness Training, Job Placement & Job Coaching
- Participate in field trips & get hands-on work experience
- Affordable
- Excellent Job Placement Rate for Academy graduates

Now accepting applications for Fall 2017

Applications due by August 30, 2017

Classes start September 18th and end December 13th, 2017

OPEN HOUSE

YOU'RE INVITED TO LEARN MORE

uniquelyabledproject.org/applying-to-the-gcc-uniquely-abled-academy/

August 9th, 2017
5:30 pm—8:00 pm

Glendale Community College Student Center
1500 N. Verdugo Rd., Glendale, CA 91208

RSVP & Request Parking Permit by August 4th to fhenson@glendale.edu

Check us out on social media:

@UniquelyAbleProject

The Uniquely Abled Project

